Subject: Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery: Call for Artists and Volunteer Opportunities

To: Ciara Moloney <ciara.moloney@lacity.org>

Dear All,

The Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery (LAMAG) announces a call for artists for the gallery's Juried Exhibition 2018. Submissions will be accepted until October 13, 2017.

This pioneering exhibition has provided a platform for emerging artists in Southern California for over six decades. Artists will be selected by a jury of three experts in the field:

- Jonathan Griffin, art critic and contributing editor for Frieze
- Jamillah James, Curator, Institute of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles
- Steven Nelson, Professor of African and African American Art History, UCLA

Please find the flyer attached. You can also find further information on awards, fees, eligibility and how to apply on our website: lamag.org/juried18

Volunteer Opportunities

Being a docent at LAMAG is a great way to learn about contemporary art, meet people with similar interests, and share your knowledge with visitors. Docents provide hands-on help with various aspects of LAMAG, from welcoming visitors to the Gallery to assisting with the execution of public programs and special events.

LAMAG is committed to building a diverse team and welcomes people of all talents, ethnicities, cultures, religions, gender identities and sexual orientation who would like to build relationships between the gallery and its audiences.

We recruit docents on a rolling basis throughout the year. If you are interested in this role, please send a one (1) page introductory letter to lamag@lacity.org outlining your interests and skills.

Please forward on to anyone who might be interested in either opportunity.

Do not reply to this email!

Thank you,

Isabelle
